SRA SUMMER CAMP VOLUNTEER COUNSELOR APPLICATION PROCESS

Every year SRA receives more applications than it has positions for the volunteer camp counselor position. SRA will use the following process to select volunteer counselors from what is generally a highly qualified pool of applicants:

- The applicant must be a rising 8th grader or above for the upcoming school year.
- Applications must be postmarked by APRIL 8, 2021 to be considered.
- SRA aims to select an even distribution of female and males.
- All interested individuals must complete and application and return it to SRA along with an essay by the above deadline.
- The essay should describe the following:
 - Information about the applicant
 - Reasons why they want to volunteer as a counselor
 - Describe their experiences working with children
(this experience could be babysitter, coach, counselor, reading buddy, tutor, etc)
 - Explain any volunteer assignments they have done
 - Details about their experiences and involvement in the SRA programs

For interested applicants entering 8th grade or above, please fill out an application and send it along with your essay by April 8, 2021 to:
